

A Name Twice Made Famous, Now a Shining Mark for Imitators.

The name "Chase," twice made famous, is a shining mark for the unscrupulous to pounce upon and appropriate in order to foist upon the public their worthless preparations. These birds of prey, by using the name Chase, expect the public to be fooled into believing they are the medicines of Dr. A. W. Chase, who first became noted as the author of the world famous Dr. Chase's Kidney Pills, and family physician, and whose fame is now doubly increased by the wonderful success of his Nerve Pills, with Nerve, Brain and Blood troubles. They play upon the name Chase, but dare not use the initials "A. W."

They imitate, but dare not counterfeit the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, which identifies the Nerve Pills now recognized as infallible for building up pale, weak, thin-blooded, nerve exhausted sufferers.

Who are nerve-tired and brain-weary. Who are easily exhausted. Who are wakeful—cannot sleep. Who have nervous headache. They remove the cause of blood impurities, securing refreshing sleep and impart strength. They build up people who find their strength and vigor waning. They settle irritated nerves, replace languor and lassitude with energy and animation. Cure Nervous Dyspepsia.

CAUTION.—The protection to the public in securing the genuine and original Dr. A. W. Chase preparation is in seeing the portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, M. D., on each box. These and these only are the genuine. Do not be satisfied with anything hearing the name "Chase" without the initials A. W. So etc. of Druggists or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

FLOOD IS RISING

Mississippi River Bottoms Above St. Louis Form a Great Lake.

A CHANGE IN THE MAP

For Seventy Miles of Its Length the Father of Waters Is About Ten Miles Wide.

Six Million Dollars Will Scare Cover the Damage Thus Far Incurred.

Keokuk, Ia., July 21.—Exploration of the flooded districts of the Mississippi river from Keokuk south shows conditions beyond the appreciation or realization of any but people of long experience with the Father of Waters in his most destructive mood.

The situation is growing worse hourly and a great conflagration in a great city would not be more rapidly destructive of values than the antithesis a hundred miles below Keokuk. There is absolutely not the slightest chance of stopping this dozen times most costly flood in the history of the great river above St. Louis.

Everywhere the greatest crops ever known are under water deep enough to float a steamboat. People at the river cities give an immense mass of details all to be generalized in losses aggregating many millions of dollars, hundreds of farmers rich ten days ago penniless and homeless, hundreds watching and praying that the great levees may hold which are now their bulwark against additional millions of loss and many cases of penury.

Careful estimates of the territory covered and generalization of the statements of best-informed people indicate the loss up to today is about $6,000,000 with every prospect of two or three millions added by the rise above not yet reaching the lower stretches of the river. Most of this loss is on the Missouri side of the river between Keokuk and Hannibal.

Passing the water-lapped lumber yards of Keokuk, the mouth of the Des Moines is seen to be nearly two miles wide. Normally there are two mouths and an island covered with farms, which are now under raging torrents. Alexandria was protected to the last by the Egyptian levee, the breaking of which would send four feet of water all over the town. Gregory is submerged except the white church in which service was held yesterday, the praying congregation from the country reaching the house of God by the railroad track, which is still above the flood in a waste of water miles wide. Other towns and cities on the islands are beyond the danger line.

Immense fields are seen in a great lake with the shore line, visible only with a glass, where the high bluffs bound the bottoms. Islands dotting the river at its normal stage have disappeared except for the tops of trees or fringe of high shore willows slightly protruding like a circular green coral reef. Occasionally a house on piles or stilts is seen, but generally only roofs protrude to mark the center of farms of corn. On the edge of the flooded river corn gradually rises on a slope, tassels, tops, ears, stalks appearing in order. In a few of the half-submerged fields and shocked wheat in the background, the remnants of many more washed to the Gulf of Mexico. In the middle of the present river the tracks of the St. Louis, Keokuk & Northwestern railroad, normally the Missouri shore, are now a few inches above the water and under it in some stretches. Shore lights for pilots are standing in the midst of a waste of water where steamboats can run over them. The river is five to ten miles wide for a distance of seventy miles, and another great lake is added to the geography. All this territory was practically covered with corn a fortnight ago.

The chief flood thus far is on the Missouri side from Keokuk to Louisiana, with Canton and West Quincy as centers of the country hurt worst. On the Illinois side are three continuous levees for forty miles from Warsaw to Quincy above the water and are thus far safe, but farmers are afraid of crevasses from muskrat holes and every rod of the redoubt is watched day and night. The breaking of these levees would flood 175 square miles in Illinois and destroy $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 worth of corn. The levees below Quincy are in the same situation except that they are lower and less firm.

Seeding High Lands.

Peoria, Ill., July 21.—The Illinois river stands in imminent danger of causing thousands of dollars worth of damage to buildings and manufactories in Peoria. The damage already caused along the lowlands by the floods will be but a drop in the bucket as compared with what it will be if the water gets one foot higher, and river men say there is no possibility of the water receding in the next twenty-four hours. The river is going up half an inch an hour. Should it continue at that rate until evening it will have passed the high water mark for this river, which is 21.3, attained during the flood in the spring of 1892. People living along the bottom lands both above and below Peoria have sought the high lands and have driven their stock with them.

POPULAR DECISION

United Mine Workers Apparently Do the Right Thing

Indianapolis, July 21.—From the tenor of reports received at headquarters here it is evident that the conclusion arrived at by the United Mine Workers' special convention on Saturday struck a popular chord in the breasts of miners everywhere, and was equally well received by the business and general public.

The convention, it is believed, made what is considered ample provision for winning the strike now pending. The recommendations of President Mitchell were adopted practically as first offered, providing for raising an immense defense fund to carry on the strikes. The strike in the Virginias was unanimously endorsed with the promise of continuing the aid now being sent there, and an appeal to the public was drafted.

The convention adopted the report of the special committee to provide for the double system of assessments. The 10 per cent levy will apply to the districts of Ohio, Indiana block, Illinois, Iowa, Tennessee, central Kentucky and Missouri. The $1 a week assessment will apply to the districts of central and western Pennsylvania, Indiana, Kansas, Colorado, Maryland, Alabama and Indian Territory. The assessment will date back to July 16. This assessment, with that of 25 per cent levied on all officers and organizers drawing over $50 a month salary, is expected to raise $250,000 a week. The contributions from outside sources are expected to bring in an additional $1,000,000 a month.

Civic Federation Again.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 21.—The strike headquarters of the United Mine Workers in this city which have been closed since President Mitchell went west, will be opened on Tuesday, when Mr. Mitchell and the district presidents will return to this city. After a brief conference as to how the relief fund shall be distributed, the subordinate officers will return to their homes and take charge of the distribution in their respective districts. When Mr. Mitchell returns to this city he is expected to remain here until the strike comes to an end. It is said now that the miners have defined their position the Civic Federation will make another appeal to the coal operators to arbitrate.

FATAL TORNADO

Eleven Lives Lost in a Storm At Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., July 21.—A fierce tornado characterized by a windstorm of extraordinary velocity, thunder, vivid lightning and a heavy rain suddenly burst upon Baltimore Sunday afternoon, coming from the southwest, with such force that eleven persons lost their lives, hundreds of houses were unroofed, streets torn up, many buildings damaged and many persons injured. The storm spent its fury in less than fifteen minutes. The damage done in the business part of the city was comparatively slight, being confined to the blowing down of signs and injuries to roofs. It was in the residence portions of the city along the river front and in the harbor where the wind spent its violence.

Of those who perished nine were drowned in the harbor from open boats, one was killed by a falling tree, and one by a live wire.

Cholera on the Decrease.

Manila, July 21.—The cholera is decreasing in Manila and the provinces and the health board has decided to relax the quarantine regulations which have been enforced between cities and provinces. This step has been decided upon because of the failure of the natives to co-operate in the measure and the general native opposition to sanitary plans.

A $100,000 Blaze.

Dallas, Tex., July 1.—Fire broke out shortly after 3 o'clock Sunday morning in the exposition grounds, and in 30 minutes the main exposition building, one of the largest buildings in the country, and several lesser buildings were destroyed, entailing a loss of $100,000, with insurance of probably $300,000.

Will Not Strike.

Chicago, July 21.—There will not be a renewal of the freight handlers' strike in Chicago. This decision was reached at a special meeting of the Freight Handlers' union last night.

Garment Makers Strike.

New York, July 21.—Twenty-five thousand Eastside garment workers went on strike Sunday and it is predicted 15,000 more will follow.

"THERE TO STAY"

What Judge Advocate Groesbeck Says of Americans in Philippines.

KNOWS THE SITUATION

Prominent Officer Just Returned Gives Out An Interesting Interview On the Question.

Col. Groesbeck Reviewed the Waller and Smith Courtmartial and Told About Cases.

San Francisco, July 21.—Colonel Stephen W. Groesbeck, formerly judge advocate of the division of the Philippines, has arrived here from Manila en route to Chicago, where he will take station as judge advocate of the department of the lakes. Colonel Groesbeck was chief reviewing authority in the trials of Major Waller and General Jacob H. Smith, both of whom were courtmartialled for methods used in the Samar campaign.

Discussing the Waller trial Colonel Groesbeck characterized Major Waller as a tactician, not a leader. In reviewing that case he said: "I could only give a qualified approval of the findings of the court, because I believed him responsible largely for the conditions that caused his men to commit the outrages charged. An attempt was made to lead a detachment of his command, consisting of four officers fifty-four enlisted men and thirty-three 'cargadores' from coast towns across the island of Samar in search of the enemy, and when about midway of his course he found himself in the heart of an uninhabited, mountainous section, without rations and without medical attention. The march had been begun without proper provision being made. The men's shoes had worn away, their clothing hung in tatters, many were stricken with fever, their feet blistered and bleeding, their bodies lacerated by thorns, and added to this wretchedness the leeches which abound attacked and greatly aggravated their wounds. To the cry for food the cargadores, it is alleged, did not efficiently respond, and the suspicion was aroused in the minds of the starving men that the cargadores were conniving at their destruction. For this they were placed under guard and all of those from whom a cry of retaliation came were executed."

Referring to the famous "kill and burn" order, alleged to have been issued by General Smith, Colonel Groesbeck said: "No such order was ever issued by Smith, but he is an impetuous and eccentric man, and when going over the ground at Balangiga after the massacre of an entire company of the Ninth Infantry, he remarked to Waller that they would be justified in killing and burning as they went."

He did not think that Waller or any of the officers of his command should be held accountable for the lives destroyed, but he believed that had more careful provision been made when the fatal march was begun it would not have ended with such disaster. He spoke of General Smith as a fine officer and expressed regret at the humiliation attached to the recent orders for his retirement.

Colonel Groesbeck believes in the "water cure" and said that in all the complaints caused by this method of forcing the insurgents to give information as to where arms were hidden, etc., it had been abused only by young officers, who were inexperienced in their work. "I believe," said he, "the 'water cure' as practiced by the American army in the Philippines to be the most humane method of obtaining information from criminals of war that is known to modern warfare."

On the Philippines question in general Colonel Groesbeck said: "We are there to stay. The price that has been paid for the islands demands that we hold them, but to civilize and establish government that can be given into the keeping of the natives is a task beyond the comprehension of those unacquainted with the treachery that has been instilled into the people by their former rulers. The uplifted bolo is the only law that they have feared for ages, and strenuous means must be adopted to eradicate such ideas."

Fatal Cloudbursts.

Binghamton, N. Y., July 21.—The heavy rains prevailing in this section for the past few days reached a climax Saturday night, when three separate cloudbursts occurred within the limits of Broome county and surrounding territory to the northward, breaking big dams, washing out railroad tracks and highways, bridges and doing much other damage, besides delaying trains. Four persons are dead and two are seriously injured. Loss to property will reach $200,000.

Caught At the Crossing.

Amort, Mo., July 21.—Near here a Kansas City Southern train struck a carriage containing Mrs. Daniel Morrow, aged fifty-five, and her daughter, aged twenty, killing both. They belong to one of the wealthiest families in this section of the state.

Doctors Surprised.

Cowles, Isle of Wight, July 21.—The king's progress continues to surprise his doctors.

BONANZA KING DEAD

J. W. Mackay, Last of Celebrated Comstock Quartet.

San Francisco, July 21.—The news of the death of John W. Mackay in London caused quite a shock here, notwithstanding his old neighbors were in a measure prepared for it by the previous announcement of his illness. Mr. Mackay was the last survivor of the four bonanza kings, Flood, O'Brien and Fair, the other three having long since died. For the past eighteen years Mr. Mackay had not been actively identified with the life of this city, but had passed most of his time in the East, making annual visits to the coast to look after his property interests in this state and Nevada.

Mr. Mackay came to California in 1851 via Panama. He at once entered a mine, working with pick and shovel in the placers of the American river. In 1859 he went to Virginia City, Nev., and began mining on the Comstock with varying success. In 1863 Mackay formed a partnership with Flood, O'Brien and Fair. In 1871 this famous mining quartet purchased the site of the bonanza territory north of the Ophir mine on the celebrated Comstock ledge. They began work on a lead abandoned by Sharon and other large operators. The enterprise was a fruitful source of ridicule in mining circles, nothing but disaster being freely predicted. Without losing heart or patience the four men continued, expending half a million dollars in prospecting operations. The ledge was struck and over $110,000,000 were added to the world's stock of precious metals.

attend the coronation of King Edward VII, returned Sunday on the steamship St. Louis. He was accompanied by his son and Commander W. S. Cowles, whom he took with him as junior and senior aides respectively. Mrs. Cowles was also of the party.

Came Together Head-On.

Rochester, N. Y., July 21.—A fatal head-on collision occurred between two passenger trains on the Lehigh Valley near Hope hospital, this city. One person was almost instantly killed and fifteen others more or less seriously injured. Both trains were running at a high rate of speed when they came together. An engine and one passenger coach in one of the trains was thrown from the track down an embankment and into the Erie canal feeder and were completely wrecked; the other engine was demolished but remained on the road.

They Quieted Down.

Leavenworth, Kan., July 21.—The riot started late Saturday night by several hundred soldiers from Fort Leavenworth, who demolished the house of a negro in the low quarter here following the stabbing of Eli Loucke, a cavalryman, by an inmate of the place, ended quietly, and Sunday all was quiet. The general sentiment was with the soldiers, and there is mild talk of organizing a vigilance committee to drive out the tough characters and thugs unless the police take decisive action in that direction.

Will Reorganize.

Philadelphia, July 21.—The plan of reorganization of the Asphalt Company of America and the National Asphalt company, which companies are in the hands of receivers, was made public last night by two committees that have been examining the condition of the companies. The plan provides that the property of the two companies shall be acquired by a new corporation which is to have a capital of $21,000,000. The new company is to be organized under the laws of the state of New Jersey.

Charged His Mind.

Manila, July 21.—The sultan of Bacolode, Mindanao, who recently sent an insulting worded communication to the commander of the American expedition to Lake Lanao, in which he threatened to begin offensive operations in August, has now written a friendly letter to the commander of the American forces, in which he disavows all desire to fight and says he will confer with the Americans in the future. The general Moro situation is regarded as favorable.

A SHOCKING DEATH

Accomplished Young Woman Burns to Death at Lawrenceport.

SHROUDED IN MYSTERY

How the Accident Occurred Will Never Be Known As She Was Alone At the Time.

Miss Nellie Grant, of New Orleans, Visiting Her Grandmother, Perishes Miserably.

Mitchell, Ind., July 21.—Miss Nellie Bullitt Grant, of New Orleans, aged twenty-five, burned to death Sunday at the beautiful country home of her grandmother, Mrs. Virginia Bullitt, of Lawrenceport. The unfortunate girl went to the barn to look for eggs, and in a few moments ran screaming to the house, her clothes a mass of flames and the barn burning furiously behind her.

She was so terribly burned that she died without regaining consciousness, and the cause of the unfortunate accident is shrouded in mystery. Whether she used matches to locate the eggs or stepped on a match that had fallen can only be surmised. She was the highly accomplished daughter of a prominent attorney of New Orleans and has a number of prominent relatives in Kentucky. The remains will be taken to Louisville for interment.

GANG BROKEN UP

Leader of Youthful Burglars Sent to the Reformatory.

La Porte, Ind., July 21.—Peter Sabaski, aged 18 years, was brought before Judge Richter and given an indeterminate sentence in the Jeffersonville reformatory of from one to fourteen years for larceny. Sabaski was the leader of a gang of youthful criminals ranging in age from 14 to 18 years, who have been looting houses of farmers for a number of months. Sabaski planned the robberies and his youthful confederates executed them. The plunder secured during this period of time represented a value of over a thousand dollars.

People Disapprove.

Elwood, Ind., July 21.—The two Elwood gas companies have in a guarded way sent out the report that the only way gas can be secured the coming winter will be by meter measurement instead of the flat rate which has been in effect here ever since the discovery of the fuel. The usual claims regarding the necessity of protecting the deficiency in the supply are made, but the people for the most part do not approve any attempt to force meters on them, although many are willing to give them a trial, with the privilege of returning to the flat-rate system if they so desire. There are a great many families who will not depend on gas for fuel, but instead will use coal or wood exclusively.

Rejected the Proposition

Elwood, Ind., July 21.—McKinley lodge of the Amalgamated association here Saturday evening voted against acceptance of the American Tin Plate company's proposition for a reduction of wages to enable it to secure a big contract.

Anderson—By a unanimous vote Saturday night the tin plate workers of this city decided to refuse to allow the American Tin Plate company to reduce their wages 25 per cent while 1,500,000 boxes of tin plate are being made for the Standard Oil company at unusually low rate in order to take the contract from the tin mills in Wales.

Remarkable Oil Well.

Marion, Ind., July 21.—The remarkable case of an abandoned gas well turning into a very productive oil well has just been discovered in the Jonesboro oil field. The find was made by several men on an old gas well near the Mississippi river. A section of the tubing had been removed, when the men were forced to quit work by great quantities of oil gushing from the well, and later the flow settled down to an excellent output of the crude petroleum.

No Trace of Poin.

Anderson, Ind., July 21.—Coroner Conrad has announced that he found no traces of strychnine in the stomach of Scott McGregor, who was found dead in Alexandria last Tuesday. Mrs. Minnie Herron, who is said to have been with McGregor the night he died, will be held at Alexandria until the examination is complete.

Broke Up the Circus.

Madison, Ind., July 21.—Just as Robinson's circus performance was about to begin Saturday night a terrible rain and electric storm came up, damaging the main tent and causing a panic which broke up the show. The people tumbled over each other in rushing out, several being hurt.

Young Girl's Suicide.

Terre Haute, Ind., July 21.—Minnie Weingardner, aged sixteen, committed suicide by taking carbolic acid. Her mother tried to commit suicide a few days ago.

MITCHELL'S STRENGTH

How the Mine Workers' President Has Risen to Power.

Indianapolis, July 21.—President Mitchell was at the mine workers' headquarters today getting ready to leave for Wilkesbarre, Pa., where he will again assume charge of the anthracite strike. He is worn with the convention he has just gone through, but is more confident than ever of winning. He naturally believes that the convention acted wisely, as it followed his lead from start to finish. The result of the convention has once more convinced the people of the power of this man, who thirteen years ago was a miner himself. He is without a peer now among the labor leaders, and it is predicted that he can succeed Samuel Gompers at the head of the American Federation of Labor if he cares to accept the honor. But Mitchell does not want the place now. He is anxious to remain at the head of the miners' organization until it is on a footing that will make it invulnerable. He has perfected it now to a degree that makes it a world factor almost, and he wants to achieve still greater success with it. The strength of Mitchell, many point out, is that he makes no effort to misuse his power. He could have easily induced the men to have ordered a general strike, but he held out for the integrity of contracts and the men stood with him. He firmly believes now that the anthracite strike will be won before the winter sets in.

The next few days will witness the opening of the campaign in Marion county. Both parties are preparing to open headquarters, which means that business is about to be resumed. There is always much interest throughout the state in the movements of the two organizations here, as there is an old saying that "as Marion county goes, so goes the state." This has never failed to carry out. So it is easy to see why there is so much interest in the outcome in Marion county. The Republicans have been carrying it by a good-sized majority for the last four campaigns and are confident of winning again, but the Democrats of course take a different view. It is up to the Democrats, however, to show what they can do. There is liable to be a different organization among the Democrats this year from the old one, as T. Taggart is not here to take his old part. There is little or no talk any more of the Taggart machine in politics, although it still exists in a dormant state. But the men who are at the head are Taggart's friends and the organization is not antagonistic to him, although it is not the old Taggart machine. It promises to be a battle royal, as both parties have selected good tickets. The speaking campaign will not begin for a month, but the quiet and effective work is to commence right off.

There will be a meeting of the Prohibitionist state committee here tomorrow for the purpose of considering plans for the campaign. Chairman Masters has been making a tour of Indiana and he has an interesting report to present. The Prohibitionists are being urged to take an active interest and the state committee is sending out a large amount of literature to instruct the voters. In off years the Prohibitionists poll the largest vote, and their leaders think this time they will have at least 15,000 votes in Indiana. There might be such a thing as them holding the balance of power, although neither one of the old parties will concede that. Speakers are to be assigned to every county so that the doctrine of prohibition will be scattered broadcast. One reason for the unusual activity it is said is to stir up an interest among temperance people so they will work against legislation proposed at the next session of the legislature by the liquor men.

The diver dies without air to breathe. The consumptive dies without lungs to breathe the air, or of lungs rendered incapable of breathing by disease. The blood as it flows in and out of the lungs indicates the consumptive's progress. As the lungs grow weaker less oxygen is inhaled, and the blood changes from scarlet to purple. Oxygen is the life of the blood as the blood is the life of the body.

The effect of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery upon weak lungs is to strengthen them, to enable the full oxygenation of the blood, arrest the progress of disease, and heal the inflamed tissues. Lung diseases have been and are being cured by "Golden Medical Discovery," in cases where deep-seated cough, frequent hemorrhage, emaciation, weakness, and night sweats have all pointed to a fatal termination by consumption.

"Some years ago I was almost a helpless victim of that dread disease—consumption," writes Mr. Chas. Fross, P. M., of Sikea, White Co., Ind. "I was confined to my room for several months; my friends and neighbors had given up all hope of my recovery, until one day a friend advised me to take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and after I had taken the contents of the second bottle I began to improve. After taking six bottles I was, I honestly believe, delivered from the grave and entirely cured. I am now a strong and hearty man."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cleanse the clogged system from accumulated impurities.

This is an opportune time to add another valuable industry to Seymour. It can be done by a united effort.

SOME of the democratic reorganizers are talking "tariff reform" like they did in 1892. But the people take no interest in that sort of talk. They remember the tariff reform experiment during Cleveland's second term.

THE Indianapolis News seems to be greatly excited because Senators Platt and Quay are for the renomination of President Roosevelt. We should think that the News would be congratulating the country on the fact that these politicians are for a man in whom the people have the utmost confidence. Every republican in the state and most of the democrats believe President Roosevelt is an honest man, and if Indiana presents no candidate in 1904 he will be their choice.

Regular meeting of Jackson Lodge F and A. M. tonight. There will be work in the third degree.

Last Friday evening lightning struck a hay barn on Daniel Walker's farm in Hamilton township, but it did not catch fire.

Question Answered.

Yes, August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers' and grandmothers' never thought of using anything else for Indigestion or Biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and bad with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. You can get this reliable remedy at The Peter Drug Co. Regular size 75 cts. Ge Green's Special Almanac.

The Coffee Heart.

The largest part of the coffee grown in the world is consumed in the United States, and some of our life insurance societies are beginning to realize how its excessive use increases the risks of life. Its effect is in shortening the long best of the heart, and medical examiners for insurance companies have added the term "coffee heart" to their regular classification of the functional derangements of that organ. These physicians advise that the use of coffee be limited to not more than two cups a day. Coffee tapers, they say, are plentiful and are as much tied to their cups as the whisky toper. The effect of the coffee upon the heart is more lasting and consequently more than that of liquor.—Detroit Free Press.

"Yes, and then the lightning set fire to the brush pile and saved me the trouble of burning it."

FROM THE CAPITAL.

One of the State's Most Interesting Institutions Described.

INDIANA SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND

Not an Asylum, but an Educational Institution Where Children Receive Scholarastic and Technical Training—Affairs Administered in Accordance With Strict Business Principles—Movements of Indiana Senators.

[Special Correspondence.]

Indianapolis, July 15.—One of the most interesting and at the same time one of the most beautiful places in Indianapolis is the Indiana Institution for the Blind. The main building, set in the midst of ample grounds, which are shaded with fine old trees and adorned with well-kept flower-beds, looks like the ante-bellum capital of some Southern state. When the institution, one of the pioneer state schools for the blind, was located here more than half a century ago, the grounds were on the outskirts of Indianapolis. Now the real estate is the most valuable owned by any one state institution; occupying a half block within a half mile of the center of business, it would bring more than $500,000. It is a somewhat remarkable fact that of the million and a half dollars spent by the state for the education of the blind, nearly one-third has been repaid by the increase in the value of the spot upon which this great work has been carried on.

Despite the fact that this institution has been in operation since 1847, the character of its work is so little known by the general public that nine out of every ten taxpayers of Indiana if questioned would say that it is an asylum where the blind are cared for as helpless wards of the state. While the attendance is greater now than it has ever been, yet many counties of Indiana are unrepresented at the school, and it is said that two-thirds of its students come from within a circle having a radius of seventy miles, with its center at Indianapolis. Out of the 164 students enrolled during the school year recently closed, none was present from Spencer, Dubois, Perry, Crawford, Clark, Scott, Jefferson, Switzerland, Ohio, Ripley, Dearborn, Franklin, Noble, Lagrange, Steuben, Benton, Newton, Jasper, Pulaski, Lake Starke or Porter counties, and the enrollment from these and other counties comparatively remote from the capital has been insignificant since the establishment of the institution. Yet there is no educational institution in the state more useful to its students or doing a work so peculiarly its own. Character of the Work.

For nine months of the year, and through a course extending over the regular common and high school period of twelve years, children with eyesight so impaired as to be unable to carry on the work of the public schools are taught not only the common branches, with the more important subjects of ordinary high school study, but are given an industrial training which has enabled many of the graduates of the institution to earn a livelihood after leaving it. Music, for which the blind manifest a special aptitude, is made an important branch of the work of the school. One interesting department of the work is the manufacture of stereotype plates from which multiple copies of musical exercises are printed and distributed among the pupils. The subjects of these selections range from the simplest ballads to concerted compositions by Moszkowski and Mascagni. Another indication of the tendency of the blind toward all that pertains to music is the popularity of the course in piano tuning offered in the industrial school. The institution has turned out a great many efficient piano tuners, an unusual delicacy of hearing coming to the rescue of the sightless in most cases. Fully 100 of the 164 pupils in the school are entered in some one or more of the musical courses.

The chief problem with the blind is one of occupation, not only because it is necessary to many as a means of livelihood and opportunities for the exercise of their natural industry are few, but because observation being denied, the long hours must be made less tedious by busy hands. In the industrial school, besides piano tuning, the boys are taught broom and chair work; the girls sewing. Last year more than 2,500 brooms were made at the institution, and nearly 400 chairs were caned. Nearly a thousand articles were made with the needles of the girls, not only sewing, but crocheting and ornamental beadwork being taught.

Attendance and Administration.

The Indiana Institution for the Education of the Blind ranks not only among the largest, but the most efficiently managed schools of its character in the country. The attendance has gradually increased year by year since 1847. The present superintendent, Mr. George S. Wilson, who came from the superintendency of the Greenfield schools to take charge of the institution five years ago, has shown a marked aptitude for the work assigned to him. He has materially reduced the per capita expense of maintaining the school without decreasing the advantages offered. In 1895 the per capita cost of maintenance was $267.76; during the fiscal year ending Oct. 31, 1901, it was a little less than $204.06. Fourteen teachers, four laborers and six general officers are employed. With the comparatively meager appropriation of little more than $30,000, the institution does a work of the greatest value, and highly creditable to the state.

The management of the institution, during the administrations of Governors Mount and Durbin, has been vested in a bi-partisan board. The strictest business methods prevail in the management of its affairs. All supplies are purchased from the lowest and best among competitive bidders, are paid for only on vouchers approved by the board and filed with the auditor of state, and are distributed only on requisitions approved by the superintendent and made of record. The system of bookkeeping is the same as that enforced in the various state institutions at this time. The administration is one of economy and strict accountability from a financial standpoint, and from an educational standpoint the institution has never accomplished better results than are now manifest.

Taking a Little Rest.

Senator Beveridge is off for a two months' vacation trip to the Rocky Mountains and the Pacific coast. The senator needs rest and will return physically fit for the active speaking campaign in which he will engage immediately upon his return to Indiana. Senator Fairbanks will watch the development of a campaign in which he is vitally interested, at closer quarters, dividing his time between his farm in Illinois and his office at Indianapolis, with the Indiana state capital having the advantage in the division. It is considered not unlikely that he will speak on public occasions before the formal opening of the state campaign. The speaking campaign will not be a long one, but it will probably be possible for one of the Indiana senators to be heard in every county in the state before the election, and in some of the larger centers of population it is possible that both of them will speak.

Governor Durbin has just returned from a vacation enforced by the condition of his health. It is remembered that several of Indiana's recent governors have been tried beyond human endurance by the onerous duties of the office. Governor Durbin, a busy man throughout his lifetime, seems to find it difficult to act on the advice of his friends and take an occasional rest, but he was finally induced to make a trip to the north somewhere, fishing with his friend "Bob" DePauw.

Editors Take an Outing.

This is the week set for the annual outing of the members of the Indiana Republican Editorial association. The trip will be by way of Sandusky and across the lake to Put-in-Bay, from whence side trips will be taken to various points on the lake. There will be no keynote speeches by visiting statesmen and no effort to outline a party policy; social enjoyment and better acquaintance among newspaper men is the sole object of the trip, as the association holds its business meeting during the winter. It has been remarked that there is something especially appropriate in view of present political conditions in the fact that the Indiana Republican editors will make their headquarters at the Hotel Victory, while their Democratic colleagues gathered for their midsummer meeting at a health resort.

HOW THE STATE DEBT HAS BEEN SCALED DOWN

The great reduction of the state debt which has been accomplished during the present era of Republican control has been effected through no policy of niggardliness, and there has been a substantial reduction, rather than an increase of the tax levy.

Here is one item going to show how it is that the administrations of Governors Mount and Durbin are able to make so good a showing. In 1895, when the Republican party came into control of financial affairs in Indiana, the auditor of state received 10 per cent of the fees of his office. The same rule obtained in other state offices. The fee and salary law passed by the Republican legislature of 1895 took away these perquisites. In the insurance department of the state auditor's office alone, the collections from 1895, including the present year, aggregate one and three-quarters millions of dollars. The state auditor's commission on these fees under the old order of things, would have been more than $175,000, representing a dead loss to the state.

It has not been so very many years ago that state officials received all the fees. Under such a system there would have gone into private coffers during the past seven years from the state auditor's office alone more money than was expended in the construction of the state capital.

Republican legislative candidates in Indiana stand for a denial of the theory that a public office is a private graft. A vote for them is a vote to endorse economy, honesty and sound business methods in the administration of the state's affairs.

The Horse Thief Captured Here in Jail at Louisville.

J. H. Wilson, alias Luke Hazzard, the horse thief captured here, was taken to Louisville Sunday by Policeman Redding and turned over to the proper authorities. The horse and buggy were taken overland by Abe Elrod and turned over to the liver-man who owned them.

The Louisville Commercial makes the following comment relative to the thief:

"J. H. Wilson, alias Hazzard, was arrested at Seymour, Ind., Saturday upon information furnished by Patrolmen Enright and Neafus, of this city, on the charge of horse stealing.
In the arrest of Wilson the police think one of the shrewdest horse thieves in the business is in custody.

"Several days ago Wilson appeared at Gwin's livery stable in New Albany and hired a horse ostensibly to make a trip to the country. True, he did make his contemplated trip, but remained away considerably longer than he had agreed, and as a result an investigation was set on foot by the New Albany liveryman, who discovered that Wilson had driven his horse to Lone Star, a small town several miles from New Albany, where he had disposed of the entire outfit.

"The New Albany police were put on the trail, but could get no clew to the whereabouts of Wilson, and apparently let the matter drop. Wilson in the meantime, seemingly indifferent to the officers' attempts to locate him, returned to this city by way of New Albany and planned his next theft.

Thursday night Wilson is said to have appeared in Graham's livery stable, where he engaged a rig to make a trip to West Point. A short time after leaving the stable Wilson returned, saying the horse was not fast enough for him, and was given a better one in exchange.

Friday morning, when the liver-man opened his stable to find Wilson had not returned, he became anxious and reported the case to the police. A description given by him tallied with that of a man seen frequenting the tenderloin district by Patrolmen Enright and Neafus, and a search was begun for him. From some of Wilson's friends the officers learned that he had stated he was going to Seymour, Ind. A message was immediately sent to Seymour with a description of the horse, buggy and driver, with the result that the horse and buggy were found in possession of a man to whom Wilson had sold it."

A Good Report.

Dan Walker, of Cortland, was here Saturday evening. He says the Jackson county wheat crop is an excellent one, both in quality and quantity, the general average per acre being about 30 bushels, though many fields yielded from 30 to 35 bushels. He says too, that the corn crop is assured, and will be an excellent one.—Columbus Times.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J.
Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market.
It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address,

Seymour 6, Osgood 4.

The Seymour Reds placed another victory to their credit in the game with the Osgood Ripleys Sunday af-favor of Seymour. Schmidt and Huffman composed the battery for the home team.

The next game here will be next Thursday when the Anderson Navies will be here to play the Reds.

White Man Turned Yellow.

Great consternation was felt by the friends of M. A. Hogarty of Lexington, Ky., when they saw he was turning yellow. His skin slowly changed color, also his eyes, and he suffered terribly. His malady was Yellow Jaundice. He was treated by the best doctors, but without benefit. Then he was advised to try Electric Bitters, the wonderful Stomach and Liver remedy, and he writes: "After taking two bottles I was wholly cured." A trial proves its matchless merit for all Stomach, Liver and Kidney troubles.
Only 50c. Sold by W. F. Peter druggist.
